

OPENING DAY OF CIRCUIT COURT

Day Devoted to Selecting Jury and Formally Organizing.

THE TERM MAY BE BRIEF

While Docket Shows a Great Many Cases, it is Believed That They Will Be Handled Quickly—Holloway Case Will be Called Next Week.

The spring term of the Circuit Court of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Florida began Tuesday morning.

The court convened at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, His Honor Judge Wills presiding. The day was spent in organizing.

Sheriff Fennell returned the venire of the jury, stating that same had been duly executed by the sheriff.

The juries were finally empanelled as follows:

Grand Jury—Henry Clay Parker, foreman; J. M. Tolbert, T. W. Colson, J. A. Phifer, S. D. Mikel, W. S. McDonald, C. W. Bauknight, J. L. Grimes, W. H. Tison, H. Jackson, A. H. Priest, R. W. Vaughn, G. W. Davis, J. T. Price, W. B. Riviere, John W. Sherrouse, H. H. Arnold, D. M. Phifer.

Petit Jury—W. W. Avera, A. M. Pournell, C. M. McKinney, J. H. Avera, T. Denby, Jonathan Manning, W. E. Brown, John Crawford, G. W. Miller, G. W. Hyde, H. J. Rites, E. Baird.

After the regular formalities in the opening of the court, an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock this morning.

While there are quite a number of cases on the docket, civil and criminal, it is believed that these trials will not be lengthy and that the term will be a short one. One of the most important cases on the docket is that of the State vs. William M. Holloway, charged with interpolation by W. N. Shente, which was continued from the last term. This case will not be called until next week.

BASEBALL TODAY.

East Florida Seminary and University of Florida Teams Will Cross Bats.

The University of Florida baseball team will arrive this morning on the Gainesville and Gulf, twelve strong. They are said to have a very strong team and will give the Seminary boys a hard game.

Post Fine, one of Tampa's star twirlers, will pitch for the University boys. Kennedy says he has two pitchers that are equally as good. The Gainesville people can judge for themselves after the game.

This will be the first college game in the State this year and the result of this game is being watched by other colleges. Kennedy is confident of winning. He says the team is in very good shape.

The Seminary team will line up as follows: Thomas, c; Harmon, p; Carpenter, 1 b; Gasque, 2 b; Taylor, 3 b; Graham, a s; Jacobie, 1 f; Boulware, r f; Coombs, c f.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp and the admission will be 25 cents. In case of rain, the game will be played tomorrow if the Lake City boys can stay over.

Rev. Sherouse Has Gone.

Rev. Joe Sherouse, the Advent Christian minister who has held the charge of the Gainesville church for the past five months, has returned to Jacksonville, where he will assume another and larger charge. Mr. Sherouse is one of the most earnest, most impressive and most eloquent divines in the State, and it was with regret that his congregation here gave him up. As was noted in The Sun of Tuesday morning, he delivered his farewell sermon at the Christian Advent Church Sunday evening, preaching to a good crowd. The successor of Mr. Sherouse has not yet been named.

Justice Colman's Court.

Justice Colman held a little matinee Tuesday, in which Dan Williams and Henry Givens played the principal roles, with the dignified Justice as referee.

Dan was arraigned charged with embezzlement, and after hearing the testimony he was adjudged guilty, and as a gentle suggestion that he should not do such a thing again Judge Colman sent him to the turpentine camp for three months.

Givens was charged with larceny, but the evidence was not of the kind to convince the Justice that he was guilty.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

A. G. Lamb of Micanopy is in the city.

Prof. John W. Wideman and son, Jerome, of Tallahassee, are in the city.

Special Agent J. F. Domingas of the Atlantic Coast Line has returned from his former home in Dothan, Ala., where he went several days ago on account of illness. Friends will be pleased to learn that he is very much improved.

Captain H. C. Parker, merchant of LaCrosse and Hague, and one of the most widely known citizens of his section, is in the city, having been summoned here as a juror. Captain Parker states that trade in his section is remarkably good, considering the season.

Mrs. George R. Stuart and three children, accompanied by the former's father, Rev. David Sullius, departed Monday for Tampa, where they propose to remain a few days, proceeding to St. Petersburg. This party has been here in attendance at the Bible Conference, during which time they were guests at the Brown House. They were well pleased with Gainesville.

After a visit to his son, Dr. J. S. Bodiford, in this city, J. H. Bodiford departed yesterday for his home in Colquitt, Ga. He enjoyed his visit here very much, and made many friends who regretted his departure. Notwithstanding his advanced age, Mr. Bodiford declares that he is yet "in the bloom of his youth," being as active as the average man of many years his junior.

A. C. Fancher, the popular druggist who has for the past six months been in the employ of J. S. Bodiford & Co., this city, has decided to go further south, and has accepted a position with the Thomas Pharmacy of Bradentown, one of the largest and handsomest drug stores in South Florida. Mr. Fancher has made many friends during his stay here. He is very popular among the young people, and his employers will release him reluctantly.

GAINESVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Several New Pupils Recently Enrolled—Good Work Accomplished.

Notwithstanding that the term is well advanced, the Gainesville Graded and High School continues to enroll new pupils and the enrollment is increasing almost daily.

There has been a number of enrollments within the past few days, among whom were Eddie and Ethel Butler of Waldo, Miss Lois Mikel of Yular, Frank Walker of Bell, Sam Ward of Brooker. The latter is a brother of Bloxham Ward, now attending West Point Military Academy, and who will graduate in June of the present year.

The enrollment for the week ending Friday was 400, with an average attendance of 90 per cent. This is indeed a compliment to Principal Kellum and his able corps of assistants, and which is duly appreciated.

Span of Mules Strayed.

Strayed from my premises on Sunday night, a span of red mare mules. They lately came from Jefferson county and are probably on their way back. A reward will be paid for their return to me. REV. T. B. BROOKS, Ocala, Fla.

Pen Picture of Bunyan.

In the life of John Bunyan by W. Hale White the author of "Pilgrim's Progress" is described as follows: "He appeared in countenance to be a stern and rough temper, but in conversation mild and affable, not given to loquacity or much discourse in company unless some urgent occasion required it. He never boasted of himself or his parts. He abhorred lying and swearing, being just in all that lay in his power to his word, not seeming to revenge injuries, loving to reconcile differences and make friendship with all. He had a sharp, quick eye, accompanied with an excellent discerning of persons, being of good judgment and quick wit. As for his person, he was tall of stature, strong boned, though not corpulent, somewhat of a ruddy face, with sparkling eyes, wearing his hair on his upper lip after the old British fashion, his hair reddish, but in his latter days time had sprinkled it with gray. His nose was well set, but not declining or bending, and his mouth moderately large, his forehead something high and his habit always plain and modest."

The Art of Drawn Work.

Perfilado, or drawn needlework, occupies the same place in Mexico as lace does in Brussels. The city of Matamoros is the center of its production, and large quantities of this beautiful work are exported to the United States. Women and girls are employed in the manufacture, and some of it is very expensive, for a year may be required to make a single piece. The linen or silk is placed in a frame, the threads are drawn out one way, and with a needle and the finest spool thread the design is worked. Perfilado is taught in the public schools. Among the articles made are handkerchiefs, tablecloths, bedspreads and covers for chairs or lounges. The work is hard and difficult, and the earnings are on an average less than a shilling a day.

Onions as Weather Prophets.

One of the rites performed by the French peasants on New Year's eve is the forecasting of the weather for the coming year by means of onions.

When the bells ring for midnight mass they scoop out the middles of twelve onions, set them in a row on the kitchen table, fill them with salt and name them for the months of the year. Then when they return from mass they examine the condition of the salt. If it has melted in any of the "months," those months will be rainy; if the salt remains dry, it indicates drought; if half melted, the first fortnight of the month will be wet.

The peasants have such implicit faith in this means of foretelling the weather that they plant their crops in accordance with the prophecy of the onions.

The Fifteenth Century Gambler.

In the time of King Henry IV. of England the "smart set" managed to play bridge or its equivalent without shocking the susceptibilities of those who think it wrong to play for money. The fifteenth century gambler, according to one historian, "played at cards for counters, nails and points in every house more for pastime than for gain." "Everie scholar or petyte (little one) that plaies for money is to be expelled," ordains a grammar school charter of the period. One of the duties of hospital sisters was "to make diligent searche amonge the poore for cards or dice."

Insulted His Legs.

Apocryph of knee breeches a correspondent of the London Express quotes an anecdote from Captain Gronow's "Recollections" which puts the whole case in a nutshell. The baillie de ferrette was always dressed in knee breeches, with a cocked hat and a court sword, the slender proportions of which greatly resembled those of his legs. "Do tell me, my dear baillie," said Montroud one day, "have you got three legs or three swords?" Soon after which, we should imagine, the baillie went home.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
